

EIGSC Hit the Links for EESF

August 28, 2007

Whittier, CA – The Elevator Industry Group of Southern California (EIGSC) held a golf outing on June 15, 2007 at the California Country Club to benefit the Elevator Escalator Safety Foundation (EESF). The event was a great success. EIGSC will be giving $3,000 to EESF.

As part of the outing festivities, the players were given opportunity to participate in skill contests. There was a ‘Hole in One’ challenge on each par 3; the “Longest Drive” contest and the “Closest to the Pin” challenge. Winners each received a bottle of fine vintage wine. Other winners were:

Closest to the Pin:

Hole #3: Sean Brannon

Hole #17: Joe Nicossio

Men’s Long Drive

Hole #4: J. Pepin

Hole #11: Longest Drive – won by J. Pepin

Ladies’ Long Drive

Hole #4: Tere Renteria

Hole #11: Tere Renteria

Straightest Drive

Men – Lewis Jones

Ladies – Tere Renteria

In addition, EIGSC added a new event this year – the Putting Contest: After each player registered they headed to the practice green for a chance to win an EIGSC 60th Anniversary commemorative putter from Musty Putters. Scott Dutton won the contest and Lewis Jones came in second.

AWARDS

First Place Team – Steve Crow, Phil Durko, Gil Moreno and Javier Villanova
